

1879

Saturday, April 11/79.

Dear Garrison

65 They telegraph
me from Salem that (the eldest) Susan Remond is dead - When I saw her a few weeks ago
she specially requested that you & I should be present at her funeral - & the telegram asks that I will inform you of the death & the time of the funeral,

which will be one
o'clock tomorrow,
Sunday, -

I most earnestly hope you will be able to go with me.

The only way to get there, Sunday,
is by the Revere Road,
which starts at ten o'clock & then we must drive over from Lynn to Salem &

we can return, from Lynn, at 3 or 4 P.M.

The Eastern
train on Sunday
starts at 8 (eight) A.M.
If you wish to avoid the exposure
of that drive from Lynn, we could leave

One fact, the other will not be in time you will probably

Boston at 8 Am

But then, unless we

Drove back to Lynn,

we should have to stay in Salem until

7 Pm.

Will you please tell beaver which

way you shall go,

so as to let me go

with you, whether

we meet here or at the station - Better I think meet at Station

so that if by any chance
